

How can you write fast in Exams?

How can you write on your answer sheet very fast in given time, here we provide you a very latest & best Tips about writing speed some of best views. So who are not able to write fast in exam and don't have good writing speed just read the following step and do practical definitely you will improve your writing speed as you want.

You remember the time when you write on your exam sheet or your copy in an exam and cursed your pen or Pencil for not writing it properly and clearly? Most of us would have to face this problem while appearing in any of examination. We find at the time of exam in first half an hour we are not able to write and hard to move our finger and hard to write faster on the sheet & hence feel painful.

Every student want to write very beautiful and very clearly and want to attempt all the question in given time. But only some of the student do this think and attempt all the question in given time but some of the student feel painful and not able to write and hard to move their finger on the examination sheets

How can you write fast in exam?

To write faster there are several practice to be followed by student. The basic reason of fast your speed you don't know all the answer and if you know answer then your typing speed enhance and you attempt all the question in given time. Some more important tricks to improve your writing speed are mentioned below.

Tips and Exercises to increase the speed

- Practice handwriting on the day of exam 15 minute its very helpful warming up and flexibility gives your muscles and you can move your hand as your wish and improve your typing Speed.
- Use pens which you are comfortable with do not use new pens on the day of the Exams, since you would have adjusted to the width and length of the pen while holding it.
- Be aware of the fact that our brain will recollect the answer for a particular question. If your mind is totally set than you remember all the answer and your speed automatically enhance.

- Avoid bad things environment of the day of exam, and choose a very silent environment to remember all the things and concentrate on your exam.
- It is very important to avoid the things which can disturb you in the examinationhall like ring, Bengals on the writing hand so that they do not physically hinder your pen holding or hand movements while writing.