English, not only will open many doors of opportunities for you, it also helps in gaining loads of confident and improving overall personality of an individual as well.

Without having a good command over English language can make your chances very less to survive in this competitive world. If you are looking for a shining future then it is essential for you to have good command on this language.

Where to Start??

- The basic requirement in improving English is vocabulary, if you don't have enough words to express your thoughts, your fluency or grammar really does not matter.
- So you should always try to learn some new words regularly and update your database of words.
- Vocabulary can be improved by reading good English newspapers, watching English News channels, English movies or reading some good English books and novels.
- While doing these practices, what's important is that you should try to implement the words you are learning from them straight into your speaking habit, otherwise things will result like learning the new words and forgetting the old ones.

What next??

- Now, when you feel, that you have enough vocabulary to express your words then start working on your grammar as whether it's English speaking or writing.
- If your grammar is not strong enough, your English will be dull and not impressive to listen or to read.
- Grammar can be improved only through practice. Learning the basic rules and practicing sentences of your own by checking it through Internet or some other means is one way to improve your Grammar.

- you can always check your grammar by tools like Spell-check on Internet or ask some of friends or colleagues to help you find your mistakes.
- Have enough vocabulary, and feeling confident about your grammar, now comes the time of improving your English Fluency and speaking.

Tips to Improve English Speaking Fluency:

- You should first know not to copy anyone's style and have your natural speaking going.
- You can always try reading newspapers or books in flow or try to listen and sing English songs.
- Don't be afraid to create mistakes. Be assured. People can only correct your mistakes once they hear you create them.
- Put yourself in all English speaking environments wherever you'll learn passively. The simplest way to learn is through speaking more and more.
- Practice every day and try to speak with their family and friends in English as much as possible. It's okay to be wrong. It's altogether fine to create mistakes. You learn from your mistakes and move on.
- Take a DVD of an English movie at rent every week, and watches it with the subtitles on.
- Watch an English news channel for at least half an hour. The news anchors and reporters typically speak terribly crisp and correct English. So first learn that in what manner they are speak and then try same in front of mirror.
- Try to Learn and study phrases. If you recognize a thousand words, you would possibly not be able to say one correct sentence. However if you recognize one phrase, you'll create many correct sentences.

Improvement can be made in fluency and speaking by practice only, the more you speak, the better you will get. But these things will only help; improvement will only start showing when you start speaking publically.

Being able to speak a language is not related to how smart you are. Anyone can learn how to speak any language. This is a proven fact by everyone in the world. I hope that with the help of these tips you will find English learning much easier and interesting.
